True triple-threats are well versed in dance, music, and acting. Come explore these skills with a team of professional performer and teaching artist from Childsplay Theatre. In this class, students will study and perform scenes, songs, and choreographed dance numbers. The focus of this class is on building a strong foundation of performance skills that students can put into action during this second semester production class. Content will be selected from American Musical Theatre classics such as Frog & Toad, My Fair Lady, The Music Man, Oklahoma, and The Sound of Music. All skill levels welcome!

*A portion of the class tuition is subsidized by Tax Credit donations to Archway Classical Academy Lincoln

Along with being dynamic and imaginative artists, Childsplay teaching artists meet the Childsplay expectations of excellence in teaching. Our teaching artists have extensive classroom experience, sharply honed lesson planning techniques and strong classroom management skills. They understand how the arts can be integrated with state and national education standards. Our teaching artists will provide a journey inclusive of both academic and artistic learning for your students.
